Carol Service

After a break of four years, it was a joy to see the return of our Carol Service in Drung. The church was filled with the beautiful voices of the choir as the Junior Infants acted out the Nativity Scene and sang their song, 'We are the Christmas Angels'. A big thank you to Fr. Farren, the readers and Ms Haughey who conducted the choir and made it such a festive experience.

Non-uniform Christmas Themed Days

Over the last couple of Thursdays and Fridays, the 'big speaker' has rung out with many a familiar Christmas song. The children have enjoyed getting into the festive atmosphere in the yard with their wonderful, interesting and colourful array of 'geansaithe na Nollag'.

Boys Soccer

The boys football team performed well in the Inishowen Primary Schools 6-a-side league this year with notable performances against Newtowncunningham and Tooban. With one match still to be played, the final result will be in January.

'Wonka'

There was great excitement on Tuesday as First to Sixth classes travelled to Derry to Brunswick Moviebowl. The children enjoyed their treat of popcorn, a drink and chocolate while they watched the very entertaining musical, 'Wonka'.
